Mr. R. F. Woods, Louisville, was here last week attending Court.

Read the advertisement of James H. Gardner in another column.

Mr. J. W. Lewis, Brandenburg, was here last week attending Court.

Wm. H. Bell assisted Clerk R. R. Skidmore during Circuit week.

Mr. Allen R. Kinchloe has gone into W. K. Barnes' office to read law.

The first issue of the Breckenridge County Democrat appeared last Friday.

Mr. Oscar Burch has been attending Mr. Johnson's session during his illness.

The Moseleyville action was pretty well represented on the jury this term of Court.

Miss Mattie Humphrey has secured a three-months school out at Antioch to begin April 1st.

Hook, Miller & Co. have kept their flaring mill running night and day for the last few weeks.

Miss Beulah Hamilton, Cloverport, and Miss Lucy Frank, Newleyville, were visiting here last week.

Mont Pamphrey, Jr., of West View, went to Canby City, Ind., last week and bought a horse thoroughbred mare.

Wood's Cliff returned to Elizabethtown last Saturday. There was but little business in this Court for the Commonwealth.

Mr. Walter Wilson has withdrawn from the race for surveyor. He is a good Democrat and would have made a good race.

Now comes Watt Harlan for Governor. Wait Watt! just wait! we do up the boys here in this house fight and we are still for him.

Mr. Will Jolly and Miss Aretta Pate were married in this place last Thursday at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Logan Pate.

Mr. George Hawk has improved considerably since he returned from Moseleyville where he was under the treatment of Mr. Mitchell.

A trustee at last week's school adopted a new set of by laws and ordinances. They will be printed at once by the News Job Printing Company.

Hugh Kingston made application last week for license to practice law. He stood a good examination and would have been admitted to practice but for the fact that he is under twenty-one years of age. A late law requires all applicants to be twenty-one years of age.

A number of the jurymen were disappointed last Saturday when they went to the Trustee of the Jury Fund to draw their pay and were told that there was no money on hand to pay them. Under the new law the Trustee must draw his warrant on the state Treasurer at Frankfort for the money and then pay it out.

Mr. Richard May, of this city, has been to California three times. His trip was made before the days of railroads, and at a time when such a trip was a considerable undertaking and when it required a great deal of money to make it. Mr. May went to New York and there on ship board by the way of the Isthmus of Panama. He spent ten years of his life in California during his young days and at a time when the gold fever there was at its highest pitch.

Notwithstanding the wretched weather of last week the hotels here were all crowded and did a good business. On the day of the Republic convention the boys drank more than they ate. At least that was the appearance of some of them. And speaking of that Republic convention, reminds me that Mr. Taylor Beard and Jesse Eskridge, attribute their defeat to the bad day. Had the day been favorable both are confident that they would have played a winning hand.

Mr. Richard McGary was appointed an examiner of the Court.

Judge John Allen Murray was continued Receiver of the Breckenridge Company until March 1st.

The grand jury adjourned last Saturday.

The juryman had an easy time this court. They didn't try but few cases. Most of their time was taken up in cracking jokes and paying the candidates.

George Washington Randolph will remain in jail until May. His case was not ready and he looks on paying his bond before another court, and skip out on the hunt of another farm.

Many parties who came to court are of the opinion that there is no need of three terms a year. The business doesn't justify it.

The jury for the May term will be selected under the new law. The Commissioners brought in the drum containing five hundred names, the first time the Court draws the name of a man living in Moseleyville and the sheriff has to ride for him he'll come.

Mr. E. D. Guffy, of Harpeth, Ky. was here a few days last week attending Court.

The Criminal docket was run through within two days and but few fine were assessed. It speaks well for the county, but it's a little tough on the Commonwealth's Attorney.

Mr. J. D. Beeler filed a petition in the circuit court last week against Taylor Beard asking for a settlement of the partnership business of the firm of Beard & Beeler. Mr. S. P. Woolfolk went to Muldraugh last week on business pertaining to the Dawson estate.

Mr. and Mrs. George Casper were in Louisville last week to attend the wedding of a relative.

I hear our young friend, Miss Maggie Green, has a position in the Louisville post office. We are glad.

The liver's Saint was not abroad as largely as formerly. The little folks exhibited in a few comic reminders.

Mr. J. L. Mallin is in Louisville receiving instructions in the Governor's line and expects an appointment shortly.

I have a kind invitation from Miss Ella Haynes to attend a concert on Friday night at Oak Grove school house.

Doc Cherry has been conducting a meeting at Muldraugh, but his pulpit here last Sunday and preached one of his characteristic, original sermons.

Our young friend, Robt. Morgan, is at home for a day. He is coming home as sweet strains from his light guitar, as the Muse in "Lays of the Lake," (I imagine) and his voice is a genuine baritone.

The Ladies' Aid decided on chairs for the M. E. church. The church is rapidly nearing completion and the congregation will soon be at home in their pretty edifice.

The Democratic primary will be held April 7th. It will be a genuine Democratic fight from first to finish. The candidates are men of high standing, and their many friends will watch the result with much interest. Unless a Republican is brought out the planks will lose favor with the people.

Mr. John Swan and Miss Clara Hunt, of Woodland, will be married the 28th. Miss Clara is well-known here in social circles, having often visited her aunts, Mrs. James Bland and Mrs. Dr. Wells. She is a pretty, attractive, young lady, and when I was in Harpeth was one of my favorite pupils. Her choice is a most worthy young man, and deserves his good fortune.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1894.

GRINDING ON.

Slowly but Sure the Kentucky Legislative Wheel Continues to Turn.

A Few More Griots Ground Out and Others Are Placed in The Hopper.

Jack Gross Gets His Bills for Charitable Institutions Through the Senate.

Local Option Will be Voted on all Over the Entire State Next November.

SEDUCTION A FELONY.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 12.—(Special.) The Senate passed the "Seduction" bill today.

Mr. Jones' Election bill was reported adversely by the Committee and it was killed after some debate.

Monday, Feb. 12.—Most all the time was taken up in the house today by the clerks reading bills for advancement to a second reading.

Mr. Charlton's resolution providing for afternoon sessions on Tuesdays and Fridays from 3 to 5 was adopted. Upon the whole this has been the busiest day that there has been in legislative circles this session.

Tuesday, Feb. 12.—Senator Gross introduced a bill today relating to elections. The Senate passed the bill appropriating $10,000 for the election of two representatives.

Tuesday, Feb. 12.—A bill was introduced in the house today for the publication of the Geological survey and appropriating $2,500 for the purpose.

Mr. White introduced a bill which converts the Fish Commission Institute into an asylum for insane females.

Mr. Charlton introduced a bill which makes it lawful for any number of persons, not less than three, to band themselves together for the purpose of intellectual and physical development, called Athletic Clubs. These clubs shall be permitted to give exhibitions in boxing, wrestling, racing etc. and charge admission fees therefor, provided that no fight shall be allowed without gloves.

Afternoon Session.
 The House held an afternoon session today, and many bills were advanced on the calendar by a rolling. Not much of anything else was done.
 A bill relating to public roads was passed.
 Senator Wells's bill to prevent cruelty to animals was killed in the House today.

THE SENATE.
 Wednesday, Feb. 14.—A motion to reconsider the vote passing Senator Pugh's bill to establish reformatories was passed today. It is thought that with a few amendments the bill will be passed.
 A resolution was introduced to discontinue $200 among the inmates of Frankfort who have participated in opening the Senate and House with prayer.

The Capital appropriation bill was largely discussed in the Senate today, though no action was taken. Mr. Ogilvie said that he had been a member of the Assembly, and on, ever since 1885 and that the question of Capital renewal had been up in every session. He believed that a start, at least, should be made now.
 Senator Gross' bill to raise the percentage allowances for charitable institutions from $150 to $150, and regulating their control, passed the Senate unanimously today. Several amendments were proposed but all were rejected. Those disposed to favor the action of the Senate in providing for the State's unfortunate may thank Senator Gross for engineering the bills through.

The substitute for the House bill abolishing the State Board of Equalization was referred to a hearing.
 Wednesday, Feb. 14.—Mr. Field's bill, asking for an appropriation of $500 to remove the remains of Capt. Thomas E. Marshall from Woodford county to Frankfort, was favorably reported by the Ways and Means Committee.
 The Local Option bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. Miller, came before the house today, accompanied by a substitute drafted by Mr. Quigley. The substitute was adopted by a vote of 50 to 27. This substitute makes Local Option an issue at every voting place in the State at the next general election, instead of the Miller bill did, but it provides that each separate district shall or shall not have liquor sold within its territory, regardless of the vote of the county as a unit.

THE SENATE.
 Thursday, Feb. 15.—In the Senate today, Groves' bill appropriating $5,000 to the Hopkinsville asylum, $50,000 to the Lexington and $10,000 to the Louisville and Kentucky Institute, was passed unanimously. It is a companion bill to the one passed yesterday, raising the percentage of these institutions from 10 to 150.
 Mr. Beckner's bill, relating to the property rights of husband and wife, which passed the House, is championed in the Senate by Mr. Weisager.

 Thursday, Feb. 15.—Mr. Hubbard, of Letcher county, introduced a resolution inviting the Grand Army of the Republic to hold its 1895 encampment in Louisville.
 The educational bill, which has been hanging fire for some time passed today. It makes no notable change in the law now in vigor.

THE SENATE.
 Friday, Feb. 16.—Mr. Myers introduced a bill, providing for deterring the identity of public works. He proposes to designate county roads, Court houses, jails and bridges as public works, upon which convicts may be employed.
 The husband and wife property rights bill was passed into tomorrow's order of the day.

Senator Gross introduced a bill requiring county printing and advertising to be done in the paper of the county having the largest circulation. This is a small bill, as advertising is so openly let to incompetent favorites with papers of small circulation and the result is the people for whose eyes the information is intended, rarely ever see it.

In the afternoon session of the Senate the aged consent bill occupied the entire time. A substitute for the bill was finally passed, which leaves the law as it is, with the exception that the clause "under promise of marriage" is eliminated. The original bill proposed to raise the age to 16 years. Mr. Moore contended for the original bill and made a strong plea for the protection of girls. Mr. Fulton thought the girls needed some protection as well, and opposed the bill on the ground that blackmail was made easy under its provisions. The new law makes the seduction of a girl under 21 years of age, with or without promise of marriage, a felony, but leaves the age of consent to marry at 12 years.

Friday, Feb. 16.—Dr. Tingly introduced a bill providing for the payment, by the Commonwealth, of fees to attorneys appointed to defend indigent persons in felony cases. The fee specified is from $15 to $30. Nearly all other states pay such fees, but Kentucky does not.
 Mr. Birkhead, the Davison county Populist, offered a bill to tax incomes.

Mr. Gilson introduced a bill proposing to amend the Constitution so that citizens of the second class may incorporate different provisions for different cities.

Mr. Hawes, of Hancock, submitted a resolution, requesting the Senate to report of the Board of World's Fair Commissioners to be offered to the General Assembly for inspection. The resolution was adopted.
 Mr. Graham, the Marshall county Populist, introduced a bill to abolish the office of Commissioner of Agriculture.
 Another bill to check absenteeism was introduced by Mr. Bracey. Two bills to this effect have already been killed this session.

Prof. Hayward's bill, making it a felony to throw stones or shoot into a train was passed by the House today.

SWEET RELIGION.

Some Thoughts Suggested by Dwelling Upon the Cold Spring Row.

"Acquaint Now Thyself With God And Beat Peace—The Gospel Is the Power."

THERE IS BUT ONE TRUTH.

Their Names: Since meditating upon the turbulent waters of the Cold Spring dissolution, I desire to express my deepest regret that such contention ever existed among Christians. God is not the author of confusion but of peace. But truth is mighty and will prevail, and we humbly trust that none of the brethren congregated here so spiritually blind as not to know their Christian duty toward each other.

Truth is always narrow. There are a thousand falsehoods to one truth. There may be a thousand ways in which any given event did not happen, and only one way in which it did happen. God will uphold the truth contained in His Word. "Forever, O Lord, Thy word is settled in heaven." "The gospel is the power of God to save." "Therefore acquaint now thyself with God and he at peace."

Jesus said I am the way, the truth and the life. To accept Jesus is to accept His teachings, and to accept His holy spirit into our hearts. Then it is that we can rejoice in the religion of the Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The theories and fantastic worship of God, sometimes cause insanity, but if there is anything in this life, that clothes us and keeps us in our right minds, it is the religion that Jesus taught. His disciples on the mount of Olives and in the wilderness of Judea.

Religion, this grand old word, though almost obsolete, should still be in use, for it contains and expresses the very essence of the divine teachings of the Son of God.

Religion consists, therefore, of a firm trust of principle of beliefs and faith in God, sometimes cause insanity, but if there is anything in this life, that clothes us and keeps us in our right minds, it is the religion that Jesus taught. His disciples on the mount of Olives and in the wilderness of Judea.

"With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." Religion avoids the two extremes, fanaticism and cold intellectualism. It is not a creed nor a theory, it is the experience of Christ in the heart. First, doctrinal; second, experimental; third, practical.

First, doctrinal because we must first learn of Christ from His own divine teachings, and accept Him as the way, the truth and the life.

Second, experimental because we must prove, which means a godly sorrow for sin, and a realization of forgiveness, and the abiding presence of the "Holy Spirit."

Third, practical because, "Blessed is the man whose God is the Lord." Willing to obey Christ in all things whatsoever He has commanded, for all power was given Him in Heaven and on earth. Doing unto others as we would have them do unto us, forgiving one another even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven us.

There is no claim made for Ayer's Sarsaparilla which cannot be endorsed by scores of testimonials. This fact plainly proves that the blood is the source of most disorders and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best of blood-purifiers. Try it this month.

Working Exhibit of Destitution. The most striking exhibit of London's destitution ever made was the annual supper for the waifs and strays on Thursday, the coldest night for years. Two thousand small, hungry, half clad boys and girls were fed. Many walked barefoot six miles on the icy pavements. Hundreds were turned away still hungry, their being only room and food enough for 5,000.—London Letter.

ATTENTION! SCHOOL TRUSTEES!

Do not be deceived in buying your School Apparatus from the first agent who comes on, and thus be led into paying exorbitant prices. I am told certain parties are canvassing this county with a set of maps, globes and charts, of which they are asking from $65 to $75. They are also representing to the people, that these are the only charts and maps that will meet the requirements of the law. That this is untrue, is shown by the circular letter of the State Superintendent, bearing date of January 14th. It is also further shown by recommendations in our hands, which we will gladly mail to any trustee at his request.

For $45 we will furnish you a complete set of Apparatus, with substantial covers, all the requirements of the school law, and which is of the very best material now before the public.

If you have not already bought, do not do so until you have seen us, examined our goods and obtained our prices. For further particulars call upon or address
